Ratisbon, September 24. N. S. Letters from Baden of the 16th adviſe, that the Magiſtrates of that Town had received and regiſtred ſeveral Proteſtations againſt the Peace lately concluded there; the French Ambaſſadors having declared to the Imperialiſts, that tho' they would not receive any themſelves, yet it was not fit to hinder thoſe who might think themſelves aggrieved by the Treaty, from entring their Proteſtations in a third Place. The Pope's Miniſter has proteſted againſt the Peace of Weſtphalia, and againſt the preſent King of Sicily's Title to that Kingdom, ſince he is ſaid to refuſe to hold it as a Fief from the See of Rome. The Dioceſe of Liege has made a Proteſtation with reſpect to the Dukedom of Bouillon; the Duke de la Tremouille, as to the Kingdom of Naples; the Princeſs of Condé, about the Monferrat; the Roman-Catholick Prince of Naſſau-Siegen, about Orange; all the French Families who lay Claim to the Succeſſion of Chaalons, about Orange and Neufchatel: And the like Proteſtations are expected from ſeveral others. The Imperial, French, and Bavarian Miniſters affirm, that there is no Deſign of exchanging Bavaria. A Proteſtation will be drawn up here by the Miniſters of the Proteſtant States of the Empire againſt the Treaty of Baden, as far as it relates to Matters of Religion, which will be kept ready to be entred on Occaſion. The Director of Mentz arrived here Yeſterday, as ſome other Miniſters did the cloſe of laſt Week; ſo that the Diet being now pretty full, will probably enter on Buſineſs in a few Days. We have Advices from Vienna which ſay, that a Staffette was arrived there with Letters from Conſtantinople of the 27th of Auguſt, importing that the Grand Viſier had acquainted the Emperor's Reſident, that the King of Sweden would depart the Turkiſh Dominions about the beginning of October, and take his way through the Imperial Territories. Upon this Notice, an Expreſs had been ſent back to Conſtantinople from Vienna, for a
